Report

A workshop on "Quality Assessment, Enhancement, and Sustenance Initiatives in Higher Education - A NAAC Perspective" was conducted on January 2, 2024, with the aim to enhance the understanding of quality assurance practices in higher education institutions, specifically in alignment with NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) guidelines. The workshop was organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and featured esteemed resource persons were Dr. Xavier Mahimai Raj, Head of the Department of Commerce, Loyola College and Prof. Dr. T. Augustine Arul Raj, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry, D.G. Vaishnav College. The workshop commenced at 9:30 AM with an inaugural speech by the Principal, Dr. R. Srikanth. Dr. Srikanth emphasized the importance of quality assessment in higher education and outlined how NAAC's accreditation criteria could guide institutions in strengthening their academic and administrative processes. He encouraged the participants to engage actively in the workshop to better understand quality enhancement initiatives. Mr. Mathew Pallikunel, welcomed the attendees and highlighted the significance of sustaining quality education in the ever-evolving landscape of higher education. An interactive session followed the presentations, where participants actively engaged with the resource persons. Attendees asked questions on the challenges of implementing quality assurance measures in their respective departments and shared their experiences in preparing for NAAC accreditation. The workshop concluded with closing remarks from the IQAC Coordinator, Prof. S.
