REPORT

The Department of Social Work has successfully organized a seminar on "Green Social Work - Responding to Climate Change and Environmental Issues," which took place on August 18th, 2023. The seminar featured esteemed speakers, Mr. Yesave, the founder of Joyism, and Dr. Manjula Devi, the Head of Learning & Development. Both experts addressed an audience composed of Social Work students and members of the NSS (National Service Scheme).

The seminar covered a range of crucial topics related to environmental concerns and their impact on society. Mr. Yesave and Dr. Manjula Devi delved into significant themes including Global Warming and its Mitigation, Climate Change and its Mitigation, Composting and Greening Buildings for a Sustainable Future, and the concept of Joy Consciousness in creating a society that is environmentally conscious and sustainable.

One of the central focal points of the seminar was the discussion on Carbon Capture and Clean Energy, emphasizing their pivotal roles in addressing climate change and promoting a cleaner and healthier environment. The seminar provided a comprehensive platform for the participants to gain a deeper understanding of these critical issues and the potential solutions that can contribute to a more sustainable future.

The engagement and insights shared during the seminar undoubtedly provided valuable knowledge and perspectives for the attendees, enabling them to be better equipped in their pursuit of contributing positively to society and the environment. The Department of Social Work remains committed to fostering awareness and action in the face of pressing global challenges, and this seminar stands as a testament to that dedication.
