Department of English – Shift I

Report on Workshop

The Department of English organized a three-day workshop from 31/7/23 to 2/08/23 on Approaches to Learning Language and Literature for the students of BA English. The speaker of the Day One was Mr. Bharathi, Assistant Professor, Christ University, Bangalore. His topic was Strategic Communication in Workplace. The speaker focused on improving interview skills, verbal and non-verbal communication, leadership skills, and public speaking.

The resource person for Day Two was Dr. Preethi, Assistant Professor, at Ethiraj College for Women. Her topic on Approaches in Learning Literature was informative. The students of B.A. English actively participated. She shared her expertise about the genres of literature, connection to the cultural context, social and moral values in literature, and nonfiction creativity techniques.

The session on Day Three was on Learning Poetry. The speaker was Mr. Paul Gunaseelan, Assistant Professor, RMK. Vivekananda College. The speaker shared his views about the chronological order of poets and poems, poetic devices, forms of poems, and approaches to poetry. Students understood the concepts of poetic techniques and benefited.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

SHIFT II

REPORT ON SEMINAR – SEPTEMBER 2023

Department of English conducted a seminar through its association “ELAN CLUB” on 13th September 2023 from 2.00 pm to 3.20 pm in KCGSJ Hall. The Chief Guest for the program was Dr. S. Thangam, Head & Assistant Professor, PG Department of English, Chellammal Women’s College. Her topic of the day was “Key to Success – A Thrust on Speaking Skills”. She started the seminar by narrating a story to grab the attention of the students. She spoke about the significance of communication skills and shared few tips to improve and enhance the speaking skills of the students. She also elaborated on six aspects like listening, imitating, reading, reflecting, speaking and practice to master communication skills. The main objective of this seminar is to create an awareness among students regarding the importance of speaking skills. Around 91 students participated in the seminar. Students learnt about the nuances of enhancing their speaking skills and also understood that without English language employability is not easy. Students actively attended the seminar by answering to the questions asked by the resource person. Chandru of I BCOM-CA came forward and gave a speech showcasing his ability of speaking in front of an audience. Prizes for the competitions conducted by the association were distributed by the resource person at the end of the seminar.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH, SHIFT II

The Department organized the screening of the movie “The White Tiger” on 08/04/24 from 1.45pm to 3.45pm in Room No. S3 for the students of II BCOM-CS and II BSC-CS. This movie is based on the novel in the same name which is prescribed in the Syllabus for II years in the Fourth Semester. Around 64 students watched the movie. This was a different learning experience for the students and they not only learnt the story of the novel but also learnt the characterization and moral of the story very easily by watching the movie.
