REPORT ON INDUSTRIAL VISIT

Date of Visit: 19/08/2023

Duration: 11.45 am - 1.30 pm

Introduction: An industrial visit was organized to the Parle-G Biscuits Company, one of India's leading biscuit manufacturers. The purpose of the visit was to gain insights into the manufacturing process, quality control procedures, and overall operations of the company. A group of 50 students from B.Com - CA participated in the visit.

Company Overview: Parle-G Biscuits Company, established in 1939, is a prominent brand in the Indian biscuit market. The company is known for its iconic Parle-G biscuits, which have become a household name across the country. The company's commitment to quality and affordable pricing has contributed to its widespread popularity.

Visit Highlights:

1. Introduction to the Manufacturing Process: The visit began with an introduction to the manufacturing process of Parle-G biscuits. The process involves mixing of raw materials, dough preparation, sheeting, cutting, baking, and packaging. The participants were provided with a detailed explanation of each step, highlighting the importance of precision and hygiene.

2. Quality Control Measures: Parle-G emphasized its stringent quality control measures. The company utilizes advanced technologies and equipment to monitor and maintain the quality of its products. The participants were shown the quality control labs where samples are tested for taste, texture, and various parameters to ensure consistent quality.

3. Automation and Technology: The participants witnessed the high level of automation in the production process. Modern machinery and technologies are employed to optimize efficiency and maintain product consistency. This emphasis on automation also ensures minimal human intervention in critical processes.

4. Packaging and Distribution: The packaging area showcased the final stage of the manufacturing process. Participants observed the packaging of biscuits into various sizes and formats. The importance of proper packaging to maintain freshness and extend shelf life was highlighted. Additionally, insights were provided into the distribution network that enables Parle-G to reach customers across the nation.

5. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Initiatives: Parle-G also presented its CSR initiatives, emphasizing their commitment to the community and environment. The company supports education, healthcare, and environmental sustainability projects, showcasing its efforts beyond business operations.
